

YEARLONG PROGRAM at East Bay Meditation Center in downtown Oakland
Sept. 20, 2014 – July 12, 2015

Practice in Transformative Action (PiTA)

for social change & social justice activists, community workers and volunteers, & transformative thought leaders

A yearlong program of East Bay Meditation Center
www.eastbaymeditation.org

Led by EBMC core teacher Mushim (Patricia Ikeda); assisted by Renato Almanzor
Offered on a gift economics (donation) basis

- Special invitation to people of color to apply
- Training you to take mindfulness practices from your heart and your home into the workplace and the world (community organizations, schools and beyond)
- Becoming mindfulness: how to take mindfulness meditation and leadership development to the next level
- Guest teachers and presenters offering fresh takes and practices on mindful transformation and social change
- Monthly meetings at EBMC, one-on-one meetings with Mushim, small group work, research in best practices in your area of interest
- “Taking the Great Vow to Not Burn Out” – self-care and healing
- Diversity, social justice, and multicultural community
- Mindfulness in stillness, and in movement; decreasing suffering, increasing joy
- Limited number of spaces

For more information see www.eastbaymeditation.org. For an application form, email PiTA@eastbaymeditation.org. Application deadline is August 15, 2014.

EBMC is wheelchair accessible. Out of respect for people with environmental illnesses, you are kindly requested to refrain from wearing fragranced hair, body, or clothing products at EBMC.