D. IMPORTANT INFORMATION - PLEASE READ

- The only legal use of a placard is its display by the person to whom it is issued. It cannot be loaned to anyone, including family members or friends and a peace officer or parking enforcement person may confiscate a placard being used for parking purposes that benefit a person other than the person to whom the placard was issued. A placard ID card identifying the placard owner is issued with every placard and should be kept with the placard owner at all times whenever the placard is in use, and presented upon request of a peace officer or a person authorized to enforce parking laws, ordinances, or regulations. The disabled person does not have to own or drive the vehicle to use the placard.
- Placard abuse or misuse can result in the confiscation, cancellation, and revocation of the placard and loss of the privileges it provides.
- Placard and Disabled Person License Plate abuse is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $250, not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than 6 months, or by both fine and imprisonment. The court may also impose a civil penalty of not more than $1,500, for each conviction.
- To alter, forge, counterfeit or falsify a plate is a felony punishable by 16 months to 3 years in a state prison or up to 1 year in the county jail.
- A person who forges, counterfeits, falsifies or passes, attempts to pass, acquires, possesses, sells, or attempts to sell a genuine or counterfeit placard, or a person who displays with fraudulent intent, or causes or permits to be displayed a forged, counterfeit or false placard is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for 6 months or by a fine of not less than $500 or more than $1,000, or by both fine and imprisonment. The court may also impose a civil penalty of not more than $4,200 for each conviction.
- Any information contained in this application will be available to local public law enforcement or the local agencies responsible for the enforcement of parking regulations. DMV compares its record of disability placards issued against the records of the Bureau of Vital Statistics.
- The plate and/or placard must be surrendered to DMV within 60 days of the death of the disabled person.

IT IS ILLEGAL

- To alter a placard or placard identification card.
- To provide false information to obtain a placard or disabled person plates.
- To allow someone to use your placard, if you are not in the vehicle.
- To forge a doctor's signature.
- To possess or display a counterfeit placard.
- For an individual to have more than one permanent placard.
